Hall Case Reversed and Remanded by Court

The Kansas City Court of Appeals has reversed and remanded the case of the State against J. W. ("Granny") Hall, on a charge of violation of prohibition law, according to a message received today by W. G. Sawyers, attorney for Hall, from the clerk of the court of appeals.

Hall was given a six months sentence and a fine of $500 by a jury in the Gentry County circuit court last December, the case having been sent there on a change of venue from this county. A motion for a new trial was overruled and then an appeal was taken.

Mr. Sawyers has not as yet received the opinion of the court of appeals and does not know on what grounds the case was reserved. He attacked the search warrant evidence as well as insufficient evidence to arrant a verdict.

DR. CURL WILL GO TO KANSAS CITY

TAKES PASTORATE THERE JANUARY 1, 1925.

IS IN A NEW FIELD

Congregation and Church Building of Paseo Methodist Epsicopal Church Will Have to Be Built Up.

Receiving appointment as pastor of the Paseo Methodist Episcopal Church, Kansas City, Dr. Otto L. Curl, formerly pastor for two years of the Maryville First M. E. Church, and now prosecuting attorney, will take charge of his pastorate at Kansas City the first of the year. The new appointment will not in any way conflict with his duties as prosecuting attorney of Nodaway County and he will be at his office in the court house until January 1, when his term expires.

Speaking of his recent appointment at Kansas City, Doctor Curl said this morning that it is a wonderful opportunity and that he goes into a new field, entirely undeveloped and the success that he has there is just what he can make it.

A chapel is now under construction, being under the direction of the City Church Extension Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Kansas City, which will be used temporarily until a larger edifice can be designed and constructed. The chapel is local at Paseo and Fifty-sixth streets in Kansas City. At present there is no Methodist Episcopal Church within a radius of a mile and a half of the chapel, the nearest one being the Trinity Church. There are 3,040 homes that have been built in this district of Kansas City within the last two years and the population of the territory exceeds 20,000.

Bishop E. L. Waldorf suggested to Doctor Curl that he take up the responsibilities of building up a church organization and congregation in this newly settled district in Kansas City, which Doctor Curl has undertaken. The chapel, now under construction, will be dedicated the first Sunday in January, and it is expected there will be apporximately 100 members to start with. So far the organization of Paseo Methodist Episcopal Church, of which Doctor Curl is to have charge, is embryonic so that the new pastor has a big proposition on his hands to build up a permanent church building and a congregation.

Doctor Curl's family will continue to live in Maryville until the latter part of next summer, as Mrs. Curl will continue to teach school and the children finish the school year here.

Thus, Doctor Curl has severed his relations with the Arkoe Church, as he has been transferred from the Missouri conference to the St. Louis conference.

Doctor Curl came to Maryville more than four years ago, coming here from the Trinity Church of Louisville, Ky., where he was minister for three years. He was pastor of the First M. E. Church of Maryville for two years, being succeeded by Dr. C. C. James. In 1922 he was elected prosecuting attorney of Nodaway County, for a term of two years, which expires January 1.

Doctor Curl held pastorates at Middletown and Ada, Ohio, before he was minister at Louisville. He received his D. D. degree from Ohio Northern at Ada, Ohio, his B. S. degree from Evansville College, Evansville, Ind., he spent two years at Hanover College, received his M. A. degree from Ohio Wesleyan at Delaware, Ohio, and the degree of Ph. D. was conferred on him by Milton University of Baltimore, Ohio. Doctor Curl took his law course at Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois.

AN ARMISTICE DAY PROGRAM AT H. S.

IS GIVEN AT ASSEMBLY THIS MORNING.

SHORT TALKS GIVEN

Purposes of Observance Explained By Miss Edwyna Forsyth—Several Musical Selections.

An Armistice Day program was held at the Maryville High School this morning.

Frank E. Burleson of the Southwestern Division of the American Red Cross outlined the many purposes of that organization in peace times as well as war. He emphasized the fundamental principles of the Junior Red Cross movement and told of the work being done by this division.

Dr. Fred Keller of the State Teachers College said that there was a cause for all wars in which America had been engaged, and that cause was to make this nation which we have today. He said that the World War, in one sense of the word, was a war to end wars.

Major Rolf Raynor was another speaker at the Armistice Day program this morning. He told of some of his experiences in the late war and said that his suffering was representative of that of thousands of others, and also of ones who gave their lives for the great cause of democracy.

Miss Edwyna Forsyth, a sophomore in the Maryville High School, in telling of the purposes of Armistice Day, said that it stood for those ideals for which Americans died. The day should also be a reminder of the unfinished task of eliminating warfare, Miss Forsyth pointed out.

The Star Spangled Banner was sung by the students. The orchestra played the accompaniment. Miss Olive Ewing sang, "In Flanders Field;" Miss Doris Wallace gave, "America's Answer," Ralph Graves gave a short selection on "The Boys Who Saved the World," and Herman Miller gave a violin solo. The orchestra, under the direction of Loren Schnabel, played several numbers.

SENATOR HENRY C. LODGE DIES TODAY

HIS DEATH FOLLOWS EXTENDED ILLNESS.

VETERAN STATESMAN

"One of Greatest In America's History"—Official Washington Hastens To Pay Tribute.

Boston, Nov. 10.—Simple funeral services, the exact hour of which has not yet been determined, will be held in Christ Church, Cambridge, Wednesday, for Senator Henry Cabot Lodge.

The body today rested at the home of Dr. Sturgis Bigelow, a life-long friend of the dead Senator. Burial will be in the Lodge family lot in Mt. Auburn cemetery.

This afternoon, President Coolidge designated Secretary Hughes to represent him with Secretary Weeks at the funeral.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, who died late last night, has been one of the greatest men of the present time, President Coolidge said today in a formal statement commenting on the death of the distinguished Massachusetts statesman.

The President today designated Secretary of War Weeks to represent him at the Lodge funeral. The stress of official business will prevent the President from attending in person. Captain Adolphus Andrews, the President's aid, will accompany Secretary Weeks to Boston as will all members of the cabinet now in Washington.

Colleagues of Senator Lodge and official Washington hastened to express their sorrow over the passing of the veteran statesman and to pay tribute to his greatness and place in history.

"One of the really great statesmen of our time" was the tribute of Senator Curtis, Republican "whip," upon whom will probably fall the mantle of leadership held by Senator Lodge. "He was always fully alive to the problems facing the country."

Senator Lodge was 75.

Served Since 1893.

Henry Cabot Lodge served continuously in the senate since 1893, and as Republican leader in 1918, when he led the fight in the senate against the League of Nations. Always a bitter foe of the league and of American participation in European affairs. Following up this attitude, when President Coolidge proposed participation in the world court, Senator Lodge sponsored a substitute plan so loaded with reservations that there was no chance that the senate would accept it.

Statesman, publicist, author, lawyer, and historian, Senator Lodge was an impressive figure in the senate. He was born in leisure, but always worked. At 30 he was a recognized historian. Among the books on history that he wrote were biographies of Washington, Hamilton, and Webster. It was his theory that every man "should give of his leisure, more or less, to politics, for it is simply good citizenship for him to do so."

Mr. Lodge always was an intense partisan. He realized his ambition to be chairman of the senate foreign relations committee in 1919, and then was chosen majority leader. In 1900 and 1920 he was permanent chairman of the Republican national conventions and played a forceful part in the conferences that preceded Warren G. Harding's nomination.

Seat Was Threatened Twice.

Mr. Lodge's seat in the senate was not seriously threatened until in 1910 when rival candidates waged a bitter fight. In that campaign Lodge was charged with having built up a powerful machine to control party affairs in Massachusetts. He secured the nomination, however, and was elected by the narrow margin of six votes in the legislature.

Seeking re-election in 1922, he was faced with bitter opposition both within and without the party. The vote ran close for a long time, but after the final count, Lodge was winner by nearly 8 thousand votes.

Soon after leaving college Lodge formed a close friendship with Theodore Roosevelt. This was fostered by their joint interest in politics and history, and during Mr. Roosevelt's administration, Lodge was invariably a factor in conferences at the White House. During the Harding administration he was also a prominent figure in these conferences.

Short Session Will Prevent Constructive and Remedial Legislation, Senator Capper Tells Int. News.

Washington, Nov. 10—Congress will await the recommendations of President Coolidge's new agricultural commission before acting on proposed legislation in the interests of the farming industry, Senator Capper of Kansas, leader of the Senate farm bloc, announced today in a statement to International News.

Despite the decision of the administration to enact constructive and remedial farm legislation without delay, Senator Capper declared that little can be accomplished in the forthcoming short session of Congress.

Coincident with Capper's statement, Robert D. Carey, chairman of the President's commission, in a telegram here today said that a "thorough investigation of the agricultural situation would be necessary" before definite recommendations could be made to Congress.

Had Made Affidavit Democratic Candidate for Governor Was Klansman.

Syracuse, Mo., Nov. 10.—Charles S. Burns, a tenant farmer, who signed an affidavit about ten days before the election in which he stated that Dr. Arthur W. Nelson, Democratic candidate for Governor, took the oath as a member of the Ku Klux Klan in June, 1923, in a pasture near California, died from an accidental gunshot wound at his home one and one-half miles from Syracuse, Friday night. His affidavit was made public by the Republican State Committee in support of its charges that Nelson was a "Klansman."

Burns was fatally wounded, it was stated, when a shotgun from which his son, Ray Burns, 20, was trying to extract the shells was discharged. The accident occurred about 8:30 o'clock Friday night. Burns' son attempted to break the breech to extract the shells when both barrels were discharged, the shot entering Burns' body and killing him instantly.

The gun was loaded shortly after Burns made his affidavit alleging Nelson to be a member of the Klan. When this affidavit was published by W. F. Phares, chairman of the Republican State Committee, Burns is said to have received a number of hostile threats, one coming in an envelope signed K. K. K. To protect himself from possible harm Burns had loaded the gun and kept it handy.

It was while his son, Ray Burns, was attempting to unload the gun, it was stated, that the shells were discharged.

Nelson positively denied that he ever joined the klan, but said that he had signed some sort of a card and attended as a spectator with others a meeting of the klan in William Haldiman's pasture, near California, in June, 1923. He said he watched the public ceremonials and then departed. The card was not an application to join, Dr. Nelson said.

Burns Was Republican.

When Burns was asked why he made the affidavit, he said that he was a Republican, and that he believed it would be of assistance to the Republican ticket if it were shown that Nelson was a member of the klan.

Two additional affidavits, purporting to give Nelson's number as 111 on the klan roster at Tipton, were filed in support of Burns' affidavit.

Affidavits were obtained by the Democratic State Committee from Dr. L. M. Gray of California and others that Nelson attended the klan gathering only as a spectator and came away with other non-members before the initiations were given. The affidavits by Burns and two Cooper County men were the basis for three vitriolic speeches by Senator James A. Reed, who charged everything up to a conspiracy to injure Nelson. He did not attack Burns, but said he was mistaken about Nelson taking the oath.

TOO MUCH MILLER BEATS WESTBORO

BUNK AND IKEY MILLER STELLAR FIELD WORK DECIDES

SEMI-FINALS ON FRIDAY

Play Winner of Princeton-Stanberry Game Which is Being Played Today at the Ridgeway Gridiron

The brilliant broken field running of Harold Miller, aided by the consistent ground gaining of Ikey Miller, enabled the Spoofhound football machine to defeat the Westboro eleven in the contest for the sub-district title of the Northwest Missouri district, Saturday on the College field. After playing on equal terms in the first half the Spoofhound football team unlashed a furious attack against the Westboro team and won the game by a 25 to 0 count.

In the first few minutes of play during the first quarter the Miller to Kissinger combination resulted in a touchdown from the 22 yard line. Fox Kissinger caught the ball on the run and sprinted a few yards to the goal. Fighting under the sting of this touchdown the Westboro team fought desperately during the half and succeeded in keeping the ball in mid-field during the greater part of this period.

Early in the fourth quarter, H. Miller skirted around the left end and raced forty yards to the goal line for the second touchdown of the game. Following this touchdown the Westboro team opened up with an aerial attack but on the second forward flip "Red" Roelofson snatched the Westboro pass and raced 65 yards for another touchdown. The Spoofhounds started on the offense again in the final quarter and by end runs made by Ikey and Bunk Miller the ball was placed on the Westboro 8 yard line. Ikey Miller shot around end for the touchdown which ended the scoring for the game.

The Spoofhounds showed themselves to be at top season form in the game against Westboro and also demonstrated an ability to cope with an aerial attack in a much better fashion than displayed in the Savannah game last week. The Maryville line held like a stone wall and forced Westboro to punt most of the time.

Cockayne, the star Maryville fullback, was on the bench at the start of the game. In the third quarter, Cockayne went in for Strong but was later replaced. Strong, though handicapped by lack of weight, played well. Kissinger at full-back was hitting lower in his line plunges than any previous time this season. He was also getting better distance in his punts and was instrumental in breaking up a number of Westboro forward passes.

The Spoofhounds now advance to the semi-final round of the Northwest Missouri district. They will play the winner of the Princeton-Stanberry game next Friday. This is the third consecutive year that the Maryville team has been in the final contests for the football honors.

Summary: Ground gained in scrimmage: Maryville, 438; Westboro, 160. Passes attempted, Maryville 4, Westboro 17. Passes completed: Maryville 1 for 22 yards, Westboro 5 for sixty-five yards. Penalties: Maryville, 25 yards; Westboro, 5 yards. Number of first downs made: Maryville, 15; Westboro 6. Losses, Maryville 8 yards; Westboro 16 yards. Punts: Maryville 4 for 140 yards; Westboro 5 for 195 yards.

Skidmore and Pickering Win.

The second annual County League Outdoor Basketball tournament came to a close Saturday night at the high school gymnasium with the Pickering boys, again champions for the second time, and the Skidmore girls crowned as title holders. Eighteen games were played during the day, starting at 8 o'clock in the morning and the final game ending at 10:30 o'clock that night. The games were run off in a creditable fashion by both the referees, R. Hann, of Burlington Junction, a former K. U. man, flipping the ball for the boys and S. Dubin of Bedford, Ia., a former Westminster player, making decisions in the girls' games.

The Skidmore girls, survivors of the semi-final round with Hopkins, had no easy match in this game, the score standing 17 to 10 when the final whistle was blown. But it was an easier semi-final game than the Elmo girls had to win from Parnell in order to get into the finals. Parnell was winner of the tourney last year.

The score in the Elmo-Parnell game was 20 to 14 for Elmo, and considering that this is the first year that the Elmo Hi has put out a girls' team, it shows a remarkable combination developed. Miss Vera Hall, forward for Elmo, picked for forward on the all-star team, was the bulwark on scoring power and is the shiftiest, most accurate basket shooter in the county league.

Skidmore Guards Close.

The running center on the Elmo team, Miss Philips, was about the cleverest on the floor, and with the guarding combination, Elmo has a combination that is hard to beat. With Skidmore the Elmo team did not function as in former games, but it must be said that Skidmore forced the fight and it was the Elmo guards who had to carry the brunt of the battle. Skidmore's guards were well prepared to break up the attack launched by Miss Hall on the Elmo team and she was unable to get under the basket as in former games due to the close guarding of the tall Skidmore guard, Miss Smith.

The score by quarters of the girls game: Elmo—2, 8, 13, 19; while for Skidmore, which led by close margins all through, the score was 6, 15, 20, 25. This shows that Skidmore piled up a lead in the first half, and could not be overtaken in the last two quarters. A change in the Elmo line-up, shifting of a center to forward, showed a better combination, which if done in the earlier part of the game might have proved a different story.

As to the all-star selections, which were made by the coaches of each team, handing in to the management those they thought deserved positions on the mythical sextet, it would be a hard combination to beat. Skidmore, the winning team, had two representatives on the all-star team, Elmo, only one, and these two teams battled in the finals.

Parnell placed two girls on the team and Guilford one. Miss Curnutt of Guilford, the choice of the coaches for guard position, was probably given credit for past performances, and although she guarded creditably, it appeared that on Saturday her running mate, Miss Ellis, was more effective.

Boys' Game.

Pickering and Guilford, survived the gruelling rounds to get into the finals. The games in the elimination round pointed to these two teams for the finals.

When Pickering and Guilford took the floor it was two seasoned teams that having been playing together for three years. Pickering went into the game a slight favorite.

The first quarter looked dark for the Pickering lads and when M. A. Peery pulled the trigger to call end of first quarter Guilford was leading 8 to 4. Captain Burks then got his team-work started and by some clever maneuvered passes got the ball to Hood under the basket and Pickering led 12 to 10 when the half was over. The third quarter was about even, Pickering gaining one point advantage, and likewise gained another one point advantage in the last quarter which made the final score, Pickering 24, Guilford 20.

3 Guilford Men Picked.

Coach Kissinger has some consolation, even though his team was forced to take a place as runner-up, as three of his men were choices of the coaches for places on the mythical all-tourney team, as Bledsoe, Ham and Curnutt were named for forward, center and guard positions, respectively. The selection of Captain Ham of Guilford might have been a surprise to some for the all-tourney team center over Burks. Ham was more accurate on his long shots in the contests Saturday, but it must be said that Burks plays a more finished game and his pivoting and one-handed attempts for the basket would make any coach's eyes stand out. However, there may be some underlying cause for the selection of Ham for this position and no one can begrudge him the place as he is a clever player.

With so many teams on the floor it is a difficult task to select the five outstanding men players and six overshadowing girls, and the fact remains that the teams selected were as fair as could be made.

The tourney was a success in every way and the management must be complimented on the manner in which it was conducted.

Trophies Given.

After the final game Saturday night gold basketballs were presented to members of the first all-star teams by Leslie G. Somerville, county superintendent of schools. I. Bartam of the Winchester, presented a basketball to the boys' team that was runner-up in the tourney, Guilford.

The County Athletic Association has wired for a basketball to be presented to the Elmo girls' team, runner-up in the girls' tourney.

A silver loving cup was presented to the winners of the tournament.

It was a good natured crowd that viewed the games at all times, and the enthusiasm that was manifest by the supporters of each team represented was noticeable. Box scores of the final games are given below and following are the summaries of the other games that were played after press time Saturday:

Youthful Chinese Ruler Stripped of Titles.

Emperor Hsuan Tung, the youthful Manchu Emperor of China, has been stripped of all his titles, and is now plain "Mr. Pu Yi." He has been forced to give up all his titles and estates and his allowance has been reduced from $4,000,000 annually to $500,000. Factories will be established to give employment to the thousands of retainers he had kept in his palaces.

The Larger Service

The larger service is not typified by the storekeeper who delivered a spool of cotton in a five-ton truck manned by three men.

Nor is it typified by the man who attempts to unload the contents of a freight car with a market basket.

The larger service consists of giving the people what they want, when they want it, at a minimum cost of time, labor and money. This, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) does.

Cost and waste are closely related. Cost is controlled and waste is eliminated by the same factors — capable management and intensive organization.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has lowered consistently its manufacturing costs by creating new and useful products from that residue of petroleum which had been acknowledged as waste.

Each new product created has been made to bear its true proportion of the manufacturing costs of all products taken from the single base—crude petroleum.

The benefits accruing from this economy have been passed to the consumer in lower prices and improved service.

Because the business of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is balanced to a fine point there is no slack season. A shut-down in its manufacturing plants seldom occurs. There is no waste effort or unnecessary overhead expense to be absorbed. Products flow through the manufacturing channels of this Company uninterruptedly and are sold at natural — not artificially maintained—prices.

Such a condition in the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is not a circumstance, it is a policy —for experience has demonstrated that manufacturing cost, selling price and quantity production are inseparable.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is inspired by a determination to render the most comprehensive service — the larger service. This means a tremendous turn-over, with a small profit per unit of sale.

It is on this foundation that the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has become one of the truly great institutions of America — a constructive force for good — and an influencing factor in solving problems closely related to the social and economic welfare of the thirty millions of people in the Middle West.

Untaught Fiddler Is Best in Three States

Uncle Am Stuart, champion of the old-time puncheon floor fiddlers of the South, smokes cigarettes, drinks corn likker and likes the girls. Uncle Am is in New York for a few days and he is having a lot of fun. His business here is to make gramophone records, and he is doing a little broadcasting on the side.

Uncle Am doesn't read music. He can't. But he knows every tune that has been heard at southern barn dances "befo' th' wah." And he can play them all.

"Ah jest nach'ly had to fiddle," Uncle Am explains. "Ever sence Ah was big enough to hold a fiddle Ah've been fiddlin'. Ah used to fiddle around th' kitchen till mah mother she'd chase me out of theah; then Ah'd go down an' fiddle around th' nigger camps till they'd chase me out of theah. Then Ah'd go into th' bahn all alone an' fiddle theah. Ah guess Ah learned most of my fiddlin' in that ol' bahn.

"Why, man, Ah guess if Ah should go out into th' woods an' go down on my knees to git religion in th' same spirit of determination Ah went about my fiddlin', why, Ah wouldn't be surprised if Ah should just nach'ly get religion."

There were 30 fiddlers in the fiddlers' convention which picked Am as the finest exponent of fiddling. They came from Georgia, Tennessee and North Carolina, and the show lasted for three days and took in $1,500 at the door.—Frederick B. Edwards in the New York Herald Tribune.

Maryland's Tribute to Our First President

As far as known this monument is the first ever erected to the memory of George Washington. It stands on the summit of South mountain, near Boonsboro, Md., and was dedicated on

Early Washington Monument.

July 4, 1827, after being built by Boonsboro citizens who fought in the Revolution. It overlooks the Antietam and Gettysburg battlefields, Harper's Ferry, the route of General Sheridan's famous ride and many other historic spots. Its top has been knocked off by lightning and there is a bullet hole in one side.—Pathfinder Magazine.

Technical Error

"Jerusha, did you cook some cloves into this round steak?" a Kansas City man asked his darkey cook one night last week.

"No, suh; no, suh," that personage exclaimed. "Why I be cookin' cloves wif a round steak?"

"I don't know. But—" here the man of the house turned the steak over and found a dozen clove buds imbedded in the meat as if they had been deliberately stuck there. "But they smell like cloves and look like cloves and taste like the devil, so—"

"Oh, I remember now," cried the cook, ready to confess. "It's ham you stick cloves in, ain't it?"—Kansas City Star.

Not His Time to Die

A miner was crossing the railway near Clermont Ferrand, France, when he was struck by a passing train. People who ran horror-stricken to the spot expecting to find his mangled body, were astounded to see the man rise from the track and walk off, none the worse except for a few bruises. He had been knocked down exactly between the wheels, and the engine passed over him without touching him.

Play Under Difficulties

A football match at Leighton Buzzard, Bedfordshire, England, was twice stopped while a player disinfected the ball and his boots. The game took place in a meadow adjoining land declared infected by foot-and-mouth disease. Twice the ball went over on the forbidden territory, and the player who fetched it had to dip his boots and the ball in a bucket of disinfectant before the game was resumed.

Clock as Clerks

The efficient business man nowadays, we hear, keeps an alarm clock in the office—not necessarily to wake him when it is time to go home, but as a reminder of appointments with callers. The clock is ingeniously constructed, and if, say, you have to keep an appointment at 2:30, you merely insert a card in a slot opposite the half-hour mark, and forget it until the bell reminds you of your duty.

"Yes—but you can't blame me for that!"

MOVING PICTURES

What should a man do if, spurred by the romance of spring, he wants to take his wife on a second "honeymoon" in Cuba, and she refuses?

That was the situation confronting Lee Randon, the hero of "Cytherea," Goddess of Love, a First National picture, produced and personally directed for Samuel Goldwyn by George Fitzmaurice, and which is to play at Empire Theater tonight and Tuesday.

The manner in which the two seekers after happiness solved the situation which kept them tied down to an intolerable situation; their adventures in Cuba, and the disillusionment which came afterward constitutes a drama such as only the author, Joseph Hergesheimer, could write.

Lewis S. Stone and Irene Rich are cast as the husband and wife, with Alma Rubens in the role of Cytherea.

Observe 80th Birthday of Mrs. M. J. Cliser

(Contributed)

The old Cliser homestead near Barnard was the scene of a very happy occasion Friday, November 7, in honor of the eightieth birthday of Mrs. Mary J. Cliser. Those present included her five children, seven of her fifteen grandchildren and seven great grandchildren. Besides these there were sisters and brothers with their families, making fifty guests in all.

Greetings and messages were received from relatives in Washington, California, Colorado and Mississippi and others from nearby friends and neighbors. The beautiful birthday cake centered the table flanked by delectable viands brought from the various homes.

During the afternoon members of her family gave interesting talks concerning her early life, how as the oldest child she aided a delicate and widowed mother rear her family of eleven children, which indeed was no small task in those pioneer days. Her children related touching incidents which proved her faithfulness, loyalty and devotion to her husband and his children. Thus, indulging in reminiscences of other days passed all too quickly the birthday of a modest and unassuming, though noble woman, who is most appreciated by those who know her best and whom she served. Her work and labor of love will ever be remembered.

British political experts declare, unless there is some untoward incident to upset it, the new Ministry of Stanley Baldwin has such a majority in Commons that it will last for five years. Already they are seeking untoward incidents in the appointment of Winston Spencer Churchill, the maverick of English politics for twenty years, as Chancellor of the Exchequer. Churchill is an unbending foe of socialism, a free trader, and was not even in the Tory party until this election. Among other Ministers appointed by Mr. Baldwin are: Sir William Joynson-Hicks to be Home Secretary, Neville Chamberlain to be Minister of Health, Colonel L. C. M. S. Amery to be Secretary for the Colonies, Sir Samuel Hoare to be Air Minister, and Viscount Cave to be Lord Chancellor.

2 Large Congregations at Elmo Church Sunday

By Edgar O. Wells, Minister.

A lovely day, and two fine congregations greeted the pastor last Sunday, whose interest did not wane from the beginning of a well attended Sunday School, until the lights were turned off at night. Happy is the man who ministers to such a people, and happy any pastor and people, "whose God is Jehovah."

Beloved Christians of Elmo and vicinity ,the stately steppings of Jesus of the Universe of God, can be heard in our midst, by those whose spiritual ears are open to hear them. The human Christ no longer walks upon the earth, but the ascended High Priest of God, has returned, and abideth with us today, and in answer to our human cry for help, he is saying, "Lo I am with you always even unto the end of the age."

There will be worship and preaching services at the usual hours next Sunday. Morning theme, "The First Star in the Constellation of Grace." Night "Gripping the Eternal Verities."

Finds Kellogg's Bran "Easy way to avoid constipation" after suffering for years

Constipation is a dangerous disease. It can lead to many others. Twenty years' suffering with constipation undermined this man's health. Kellogg's Bran restored it—as it has done for thousands. This is what he says:

"Gentlemen:

After eating Kellogg's Bran twice a day for one month I find it not only an 'Easy Way to Avoid Constipation,' but an easy and most pleasant way to cure it. I have been troubled with constipation . . . for more than twenty years . . . after adopting the milk and bran diet I find my stomach greatly improved, and find it a specific for constipation. . . . I deem it only justice that you should know what your product has done for me, and what it is capable of doing for others."

(The original of this letter is on file at the Kellogg Company, Battle Creek, Mich.)

Kellogg's Bran relieves mild and chronic constipation because it is ALL bran. It brings sure results. It sweeps, cleans and purifies the intestine in nature's own way. Don't experiment. Only ALL bran can be 100 per cent effective.

If eaten regularly, Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is guaranteed to bring permanent relief—or your grocer returns your money. You should eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal.

The flavor is delicious—nut-like—cooked and krumbled. Enjoy it with milk or cream, sprinkled on other cereals, cooked with hot cereals, or in the delightful recipes on every package. Made in Battle Creek. Sold by grocers everywhere.

Hall Case Reversed and Remanded by Court

The Kansas City Court of Appeals has reversed and remanded the case of the State against J. W. ("Granny") Hall, on a charge of violation of prohibition law, according to a message received today by W. G. Sawyers, attorney for Hall, from the clerk of the court of appeals.

Hall was given a six months sentence and a fine of $500 by a jury in the Gentry County circuit court last December, the case having been sent there on a change of venue from this county. A motion for a new trial was overruled and then an appeal was taken.

Mr. Sawyers has not as yet received the opinion of the court of appeals and does not know on what grounds the case was reserved. He attacked the search warrant evidence as well as insufficient evidence to arrant a verdict.

The body was shipped to Santa Rosa for burial.

Mr. Hardesty was about 80 years old.

DR. CURL WILL GO TO KANSAS CITY

TAKES PASTORATE THERE JANUARY 1, 1925.

IS IN A NEW FIELD

Congregation and Church Building of Paseo Methodist Epsicopal Church Will Have to Be Built Up.

Receiving appointment as pastor of the Paseo Methodist Episcopal Church, Kansas City, Dr. Otto L. Curl, formerly pastor for two years of the Maryville First M. E. Church, and now prosecuting attorney, will take charge of his pastorate at Kansas City the first of the year. The new appointment will not in any way conflict with his duties as prosecuting attorney of Nodaway County and he will be at his office in the court house until January 1, when his term expires.

Speaking of his recent appointment at Kansas City, Doctor Curl said this morning that it is a wonderful opportunity and that he goes into a new field, entirely undeveloped and the success that he has there is just what he can make it.

A chapel is now under construction, being under the direction of the City Church Extension Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Kansas City, which will be used temporarily until a larger edifice can be designed and constructed. The chapel is local at Paseo and Fifty-sixth streets in Kansas City. At present there is no Methodist Episcopal Church within a radius of a mile and a half of the chapel, the nearest one being the Trinity Church. There are 3,040 homes that have been built in this district of Kansas City within the last two years and the population of the territory exceeds 20,000.

Bishop E. L. Waldorf suggested to Doctor Curl that he take up the responsibilities of building up a church organization and congregation in this newly settled district in Kansas City, which Doctor Curl has undertaken. The chapel, now under construction, will be dedicated the first Sunday in January, and it is expected there will be approximately 100 members to start with. So far the organization of Paseo Methodist Episcopal Church, of which Doctor Curl is to have charge, is embryonic so that the new pastor has a big proposition on his hands to build up a permanent church building and a congregation.

Doctor Curl's family will continue to live in Maryville until the latter part of next summer, as Mrs. Curl will continue to teach school and the children finish the school year here.

Thus, Doctor Curl has severed his relations with the Arkoe Church, as he has been transferred from the Missouri conference to the St. Louis conference.

Doctor Curl came to Maryville more than four years ago, coming here from the Trinity Church of Louisville, Ky., where he was minister for three years. He was pastor of the First M. E. Church of Maryville for two years, being succeeded by Dr. C. C. James. In 1922 he was elected prosecuting attorney of Nodaway County, for a term of two years, which expires January 1.

Doctor Curl held pastorates at Middletown and Ada, Ohio, before he was minister at Louisville. He received his D. D. degree from Ohio Northern at Ada, Ohio, his B. S. degree from Evansville College, Evansville, Ind., he spent two years at Hanover College, received his M. A. degree from Ohio Wesleyan at Delaware, Ohio, and the degree of Ph. D. was conferred on him by Milton University of Baltimore, Ohio. Doctor Curl took his law course at Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois.

AN ARMISTICE DAY PROGRAM AT H. S.

IS GIVEN AT ASSEMBLY THIS MORNING.

SHORT TALKS GIVEN

Purposes of Observance Explained By Miss Edwyna Forsyth—Several Musical Selections.

An Armistice Day program was held at the Maryville High School this morning.

Frank E. Burleson of the Southwestern Division of the American Red Cross outlined the many purposes of that organization in peace times as well as war. He emphasized the fundamental principles of the Junior Red Cross movement and told of the work being done by this division.

Dr. Fred Keller of the State Teachers College said that there was a cause for all wars in which America had been engaged, and that cause was to make this nation which we have today. He said that the World War, in one sense of the word, was a war to end wars.

Major Rolf Rayner was another speaker at the Armistice Day program this morning. He told of some of his experiences in the late war and said that his suffering was representative of that of thousands of others, and also of ones who gave their lives for the great cause of democracy.

Miss Edwyna Forsyth, a sophomore in the Maryville High School, in telling of the purposes of Armistice Day, said that it stood for those ideals for which Americans died. The day should also be a reminder of the unfinished task of eliminating warfare, Miss Forsyth pointed out.

The Star Spangled Banner was sung by the students. The orchestra played the accompaniment. Miss Olive Ewing sang, "In Flanders Field;" Miss Doris Wallace gave, "America's Answer," Ralph Graves gave a short selection on "The Boys Who Saved the World," and Herman Miller gave a violin solo. The orchestra, under the direction of Loren Schnabel, played several numbers.

SENATOR HENRY C. LODGE DIES TODAY

HIS DEATH FOLLOWS EXTENDED ILLNESS.

VETERAN STATESMAN

"One of Greatest In America's History"—Official Washington Hastens To Pay Tribute.

Boston, Nov. 10.—Simple funeral services, the exact hour of which has not yet been determined, will be held in Christ Church, Cambridge, Wednesday, for Senator Henry Cabot Lodge.

The body today rested at the home of Dr. Sturgis Bigelow, a life-long friend of the dead Senator. Burial will be in the Lodge family lot in Mt. Auburn cemetery.

This afternoon, President Coolidge designated Secretary Hughes to represent him with Secretary Weeks at the funeral.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, who died late last night, has been one of the greatest men of the present time, President Coolidge said today in a formal statement commenting on the death of the distinguished Massachusetts statesman.

The President today designated Secretary of War Weeks to represent him at the Lodge funeral. The stress of official business will prevent the President from attending in person. Captain Adolphus Andrews, the President's aid, will accompany Secretary Weeks to Boston as will all members of the cabinet now in Washington.

Colleagues of Senator Lodge and official Washington hastened to express their sorrow over the passing of the veteran statesman and to pay tribute to his greatness and place in history.

"One of the really great statesmen of our time" was the tribute of Senator Curtis, Republican "whip," upon whom will probably fall the mantle of leadership held by Senator Lodge. "He was always fully alive to the problems facing the country."

Senator Lodge was 75.

Served Since 1893.

Henry Cabot Lodge served continuously in the senate since 1893, and as Republican leader in 1918, when he led the fight in the senate against the League of Nations. Always a bitter foe of the league and of American participation in European affairs. Following up this attitude, when President Coolidge proposed participation in the world court, Senator Lodge sponsored a substitute plan so loaded with reservations that there was no chance that the senate would accept it.

Statesman, publicist, author, lawyer, and historian, Senator Lodge was an impressive figure in the senate. He was born in leisure, but always worked. At 30 he was a recognized historian. Among the books on history that he wrote were biographies of Washington, Hamilton, and Webster. It was his theory that every man "should give of his leisure, more or less, to politics, for it is simply good citizenship for him to do so."

Mr. Lodge always was an intense partisan. He realized his ambition to be chairman of the senate foreign relations committee in 1919, and then was chosen majority leader. In 1900 and 1920 he was permanent chairman of the Republican national conventions and played a forceful part in the conferences that preceded Warren G. Harding's nomination.

Seat Was Threatened Twice.

Mr. Lodge's seat in the senate was not seriously threatened until in 1910 when rival candidates waged a bitter fight. In that campaign Lodge was charged with having built up a powerful machine to control party affairs in Massachusetts. He secured the nomination, however, and was elected by the narrow margin of six votes in the legislature.

Seeking re-election in 1922, he was faced with bitter opposition both within and without the party. The vote ran close for a long time, but after the final count, Lodge was winner by nearly 8 thousand votes.

Soon after leaving college Lodge formed a close friendship with Theodore Roosevelt. This was fostered by their joint interest in politics and history, and during Mr. Roosevelt's administration, Lodge was invariably a factor in conferences at the White House. During the Harding administration he was also a prominent figure in these conferences.

TO AWAIT RESULTS ON FARM SURVEY

CONGRESS TO ACT AFTER COMMISSION REPORTS.

NO IMMEDIATE SOLUTION

Short Session Will Prevent Constructive and Remedial Legislation, Senator Capper Tells Int. News.

Washington, Nov. 10—Congress will await the recommendations of President Coolidge's new agricultural commission before acting on proposed legislation in the interests of the farming industry, Senator Capper of Kansas, leader of the Senate farm bloc, announced today in a statement to International News.

Despite the decision of the administration to enact constructive and remedial farm legislation without delay, Senator Capper declared that little can be accomplished in the forthcoming short session of Congress.

Coincident with Capper's statement, Robert D. Carey, chairman of the President's commission, in a telegram here today said that a "thorough investigation of the agricultural situation would be necessary" before definite recommendations could be made to Congress.

Indian Gets Revenge After Long Waiting

Half-Breed Attacks Okmulgee Man And Chops Off Both Arms—Warrant Is Issued Today.

Okmulgee, Okla., Nov. 10.—Revenge withheld for twenty years by a half-breed Indian had been satisfied today in the mutilation of Robert C. Fletcher, who lies in a local hospital with both hands severed at the wrists by a sharp hatchet. A chopping block, Fletcher declared, had been used by the half-breed in getting his revenge in the manner of his forefathers.

Twenty years ago, Fletcher said, he won a law suit and a fight with an Indian half-breed. During the fight, he struck the Red Skin with a pair of brass knuckles.

A warrant for the arrest of the half-breed, whose name has not been made public, was issued today.

Burns Was Killed In An Accident

Had Made Affidavit Democratic Candidate for Governor Was Klansman.

Syracuse, Mo., Nov. 10.—Charles S. Burns, a tenant farmer, who signed an affidavit about ten days before the election in which he stated that Dr. Arthur W. Nelson, Democratic candidate for Governor, took the oath as a member of the Ku Klux Klan in June, 1923, in a pasture near California, died from an accidental gunshot wound at his home one and one-half miles from Syracuse, Friday night. His affidavit was made public by the Republican State Committee in support of its charges that Nelson was a "Klansman."

Burns was fatally wounded, it was stated, when a shotgun from which his son, Ray Burns, 20, was trying to extract the shells was discharged. The accident occurred about 8:30 o'clock Friday night. Burns' son attempted to break the breech to extract the shells when both barrels were discharged, the shot entering Burns' body and killing him instantly.

The gun was loaded shortly after Burns made his affidavit alleging Nelson to be a member of the Klan. When this affidavit was published by W. F. Phares, chairman of the Republican State Committee, Burns is said to have received a number of hostile threats, one coming in an envelope signed K. K. K. To protect himself from possible harm Burns had loaded the gun and kept it handy.

It was while his son, Ray Burns, was attempting to unload the gun, it was stated, that the shells were discharged.

Nelson positively denied that he ever joined the klan, but said that he had signed some sort of a card and attended as a spectator with others a meeting of the klan in William Haldiman's pasture, near California, in June, 1923. He said he watched the public ceremonials and then departed. The card was not an application to join, Dr. Nelson said.

Burns Was Republican.

When Burns was asked why he made the affidavit, he said that he was a Republican, and that he believed it would be of assistance to the Republican ticket if it were shown that Nelson was a member of the klan.

Two additional affidavits, purporting to give Nelson's number as 111 on the klan roster at Tipton, were filed in support of Burns' affidavit.

Affidavits were obtained by the Democratic State Committee from Dr. L. M. Gray of California and others that Nelson attended the klan gathering only as a spectator and came away with other non-members before the initiations were given. The affidavits by Burns and two Cooper County men were the basis for three vitriolic speeches by Senator James A. Reed, who charged everything up to a conspiracy to injure Nelson. He did not attack Burns, but said he was mistaken about Nelson taking the oath.

You have the authority of doctors and dentists for this statement. Your own experience will prove it, if you will use WRIGLEY'S after every meal.

The busy man—or woman either—rarely has time to clean the teeth after eating. Yet they should be cleaned, and

TOO MUCH MILLER BEATS WESTBORO

BUNK AND IKEY MILLER STELLAR FIELD WORK DECIDES

SEMI-FINALS ON FRIDAY

Play Winner of Princeton-Stanberry Game Which is Being Played Today at the Ridgeway Gridiron

The brilliant broken field running of Harold Miller, aided by the consistent ground gaining of Ikey Miller, enabled the Spoofhound football machine to defeat the Westboro eleven in the contest for the sub-district title of the Northwest Missouri district, Saturday on the College field. After playing on equal terms in the first half the Spoofhound football team unlashed a furious attack against the Westboro team and won the game by a 25 to 0 count.

In the first few minutes of play during the first quarter the Miller to Kissinger combination resulted in a touchdown from the 22 yard line. Fox Kissinger caught the ball on the run and sprinted a few yards to the goal. Fighting under the sting of this touchdown the Westboro team fought desperately during the half and succeeded in keeping the ball in mid-field during the greater part of this period.

Early in the fourth quarter, H. Miller skirted around the left end and raced forty yards to the goal line for the second touchdown of the game. Following this touchdown the Westboro team opened up with an aerial attack but on the second forward flip "Red" Roelofson snatched the Westboro pass and raced 65 yards for another touchdown. The Spoofhounds started on the offense again in the final quarter and by end runs made by Ikey and Bunk Miller the ball was placed on the Westboro 8 yard line. Ikey Miller shot around end for the touchdown which ended the scoring for the game.

The Spoofhounds showed themselves to be at top season form in the game against Westboro and also demonstrated an ability to cope with an aerial attack in a much better fashion than displayed in the Savannah game last week. The Maryville line held like a stone wall and forced Westboro to punt most of the time.

Cockayne, the star Maryville fullback, was on the bench at the start of the game. In the third quarter, Cockayne went in for Strong but was later replaced. Strong, though handicapped by lack of weight, played well. Kissinger at full-back was hitting lower in his line plunges than any previous time this season. He was also getting better distance in his punts and was instrumental in breaking up a number of Westboro forward passes.

The Spoofhounds now advance to the semi-final round of the Northwest Missouri district. They will play the winner of the Princeton-Stanberry game next Friday. This is the third consecutive year that the Maryville team has been in the final contests for the football honors.

Summary: Ground gained in scrimmage: Maryville, 438; Westboro, 160. Passes attempted, Maryville 4, Westboro 17. Passes completed: Maryville 1 for 22 yards, Westboro 5 for sixty-five yards. Penalties: Maryville, 25 yards; Westboro, 5 yards. Number of first downs made: Maryville, 15; Westboro 6. Losses, Maryville 8 yards; Westboro 16 yards. Punts: Maryville 4 for 140 yards; Westboro 5 for 195 yards.

Skidmore and Pickering Win.

The second annual County League Outdoor Basketball tournament came to a close Saturday night at the high school gymnasium with the Pickering boys, again champions for the second time, and the Skidmore girls crowned as title holders. Eighteen games were played during the day, starting at 8 o'clock in the morning and the final game ending at 10:30 o'clock that night. The games were run off in a creditable fashion by both the referees, R. Hann, of Burlington Junction, a former K. U. man, flipping the ball for the boys and S. Dubin of Bedford, Ia., a former Westminster player, making decisions in the girls' games.

The Skidmore girls, survivors of the semi-final round with Hopkins, had no easy match in this game, the score standing 17 to 10 when the final whistle was blown. But it was an easier semi-final game than the Elmo girls had to win from Parnell in order to get into the finals. Parnell was winner of the tourney last year.

The score in the Elmo-Parnell game was 20 to 14 for Elmo, and considering that this is the first year that the Elmo Hi has put out a girls' team, it shows a remarkable combination developed. Miss Vera Hall, forward for Elmo, picked for forward on the all-star team, was the bulwark on scoring power and is the shiftiest, most accurate basket shooter in the county league.

Skidmore Guards Close.

The running center on the Elmo team, Miss Philips, was about the cleverest on the floor, and with the guarding combination, Elmo has a combination that is hard to beat. With Skidmore the Elmo team did not function as in former games, but it must be said that Skidmore forced the fight and it was the Elmo guards who had to carry the brunt of the battle. Skidmore's guards were well prepared to break up the attack launched by Miss Hall on the Elmo team and she was unable to get under the basket as in former games due to the close guarding of the tall Skidmore guard, Miss Smith.

The score by quarters of the girls game: Elmo—2, 8, 13, 19; while for Skidmore, which led by close margins all through, the score was 6, 15, 20, 25. This shows that Skidmore piled up a lead in the first half, and could not be overtaken in the last two quarters. A change in the Elmo line-up, shifting of a center to forward, showed a better combination, which if done in the earlier part of the game might have proved a different story.

As to the all-star selections, which were made by the coaches of each team, handing in to the management those they thought deserved positions on the mythical sextet, it would be a hard combination to beat. Skidmore, the winning team, had two representatives on the all-star team, Elmo, only one, and these two teams battled in the finals.

Parnell placed two girls on the team and Guilford one. Miss Curnutt of Guilford, the choice of the coaches for guard position, was probably given credit for past performances, and although she guarded creditably, it appeared that on Saturday her running mate, Miss Ellis, was more effective.

Boys' Game.

Pickering and Guilford, survived the gruelling rounds to get into the finals. The games in the elimination round pointed to these two teams for the finals.

When Pickering and Guilford took the floor it was two seasoned teams that having been playing together for three years. Pickering went into the game a slight favorite.

The first quarter looked dark for the Pickering lads and when M. A. Peery pulled the trigger to call end of first quarter Guilford was leading 8 to 4. Captain Burks then got his team-work started and by some clever maneuvered passes got the ball to Hood under the basket and Pickering led 12 to 10 when the half was over. The third quarter was about even, Pickering gaining one point advantage, and likewise gained another one point advantage in the last quarter which made the final score, Pickering 24, Guilford 20.

3 Guilford Men Picked.

Coach Kissinger has some consolation, even though his team was forced to take a place as runner-up, as three of his men were choices of the coaches for places on the mythical all-tourney team, as Bledsoe, Ham and Curnutt were named for forward, center and guard positions, respectively. The selection of Captain Ham of Guilford might have been a surprise to some for the all-tourney team center over Burks. Ham was more accurate on his long shots in the contests Saturday, but it must be said that Burks plays a more finished game and his pivoting and one-handed attempts for the basket would make any coach's eyes stand out. However, there may be some underlying cause for the selection of Ham for this position and no one can begrudge him the place as he is a clever player.

With so many teams on the floor it is a difficult task to select the five outstanding men players and six overshadowing girls, and the fact remains that the teams selected were as fair as could be made.

The tourney was a success in every way and the management must be complimented on the manner in which it was conducted.

Trophies Given.

After the final game Saturday night gold basketballs were presented to members of the first all-star teams by Leslie G. Somerville, county superintendent of schools. I. Bartam of the Winchester, presented a basketball to the boys' team that was runner-up in the tourney, Guilford.

The County Athletic Association has wired for a basketball to be presented to the Elmo girls' team, runner-up in the girls' tourney.

A silver loving cup was presented to the winners of the tournament.

It was a good natured crowd that viewed the games at all times, and the enthusiasm that was manifest by the supporters of each team represented was noticeable. Box scores of the final games are given below and following are the summaries of the other games that were played after press time Saturday:

Youthful Chinese Ruler Stripped of Titles.

Emperor Hsuan Tung, the youthful Manchu Emperor of China, has been stripped of all his titles, and is now plain "Mr. Pu Yi." He has been forced to give up all his titles and estates and his allowance has been reduced from $4,000,000 annually to $500,000. Factories will be established to give employment to the thousands of retainers he had kept in his palaces.

The Larger Service

The larger service is not typified by the storekeeper who delivered a spool of cotton in a five-ton truck manned by three men.

Nor is it typified by the man who attempts to unload the contents of a freight car with a market basket.

The larger service consists of giving the people what they want, when they want it, at a minimum cost of time, labor and money. This, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) does.

Cost and waste are closely related. Cost is controlled and waste is eliminated by the same factors — capable management and intensive organization.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has lowered consistently its manufacturing costs by creating new and useful products from that residue of petroleum which had been acknowledged as waste.

Each new product created has been made to bear its true proportion of the manufacturing costs of all products taken from the single base—crude petroleum.

The benefits accruing from this economy have been passed to the consumer in lower prices and improved service.

Because the business of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is balanced to a fine point there is no slack season. A shut-down in its manufacturing plants seldom occurs. There is no waste effort or unnecessary overhead expense to be absorbed. Products flow through the manufacturing channels of this Company uninterruptedly and are sold at natural — not artificially maintained—prices.

Such a condition in the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is not a circumstance, it is a policy —for experience has demonstrated that manufacturing cost, selling price and quantity production are inseparable.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is inspired by a determination to render the most comprehensive service — the larger service. This means a tremendous turn-over, with a small profit per unit of sale.

It is on this foundation that the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has become one of the truly great institutions of America — a constructive force for good — and an influencing factor in solving problems closely related to the social and economic welfare of the thirty millions of people in the Middle West.

Untaught Fiddler Is Best in Three States

Uncle Am Stuart, champion of the old-time puncheon floor fiddlers of the South, smokes cigarettes, drinks corn likker and likes the girls. Uncle Am is in New York for a few days and he is having a lot of fun. His business here is to make gramophone records, and he is doing a little broadcasting on the side.

Uncle Am doesn't read music. He can't. But he knows every tune that has been heard at southern barn dances "befo' th' wah." And he can play them all.

"Ah jest nach'ly had to fiddle," Uncle Am explains. "Ever sence Ah was big enough to hold a fiddle Ah've been fiddlin'. Ah used to fiddle around th' kitchen till mah mother she'd chase me out of theah; then Ah'd go down an' fiddle around th' nigger camps till they'd chase me out of theah. Then Ah'd go into th' bahn all alone an' fiddle theah. Ah guess Ah learned most of my fiddlin' in that ol' bahn.

"Why, man, Ah guess if Ah should go out into th' woods an' go down on my knees to git religion in th' same spirit of determination Ah went about my fiddlin', why, Ah wouldn't be surprised if Ah should just nach'ly get religion."

There were 30 fiddlers in the fiddlers' convention which picked Am as the finest exponent of fiddling. They came from Georgia, Tennessee and North Carolina, and the show lasted for three days and took in $1,500 at the door.—Frederick B. Edwards in the New York Herald Tribune.

Maryland's Tribute to Our First President

As far as known this monument is the first ever erected to the memory of George Washington. It stands on the summit of South mountain, near Boonsboro, Md., and was dedicated on

Early Washington Monument.

July 4, 1827, after being built by Boonsboro citizens who fought in the Revolution. It overlooks the Antietam and Gettysburg battlefields, Harper's Ferry, the route of General Sheridan's famous ride and many other historic spots. Its top has been knocked off by lightning and there is a bullet hole in one side.—Pathfinder Magazine.

Technical Error

"Jerusha, did you cook some cloves into this round steak?" a Kansas City man asked his darkey cook one night last week.

"No, suh; no, suh," that personage exclaimed. "Why I be cookin' cloves wif a round steak?"

"I don't know. But—" here the man of the house turned the steak over and found a dozen clove buds imbedded in the meat as if they had been deliberately stuck there. "But they smell like cloves and look like cloves and taste like the devil, so—"

"Oh, I remember now," cried the cook, ready to confess. "It's ham you stick cloves in, ain't it?"—Kansas City Star.

Not His Time to Die

A miner was crossing the railway near Clermont Ferrand, France, when he was struck by a passing train. People who ran horror-stricken to the spot expecting to find his mangled body, were astounded to see the man rise from the track and walk off, none the worse except for a few bruises. He had been knocked down exactly between the wheels, and the engine passed over him without touching him.

Play Under Difficulties

A football match at Leighton Buzzard, Bedfordshire, England, was twice stopped while a player disinfected the ball and his boots. The game took place in a meadow adjoining land declared infected by foot-and-mouth disease. Twice the ball went over on the forbidden territory, and the player who fetched it had to dip his boots and the ball in a bucket of disinfectant before the game was resumed.

Clock as Clerks

The efficient business man nowadays, we hear, keeps an alarm clock in the office—not necessarily to wake him when it is time to go home, but as a reminder of appointments with callers. The clock is ingeniously constructed, and if, say, you have to keep an appointment at 2:30, you merely insert a card in a slot opposite the half-hour mark, and forget it until the bell reminds you of your duty.

MOVING PICTURES

What should a man do if, spurred by the romance of spring, he wants to take his wife on a second "honeymoon" in Cuba, and she refuses?

That was the situation confronting Lee Randon, the hero of "Cytherea," Goddess of Love, a First National picture, produced and personally directed for Samuel Goldwyn by George Fitzmaurice, and which is to play at Empire Theater tonight and Tuesday.

The manner in which the two seekers after happiness solved the situation which kept them tied down to an intolerable situation, their adventures in Cuba, and the disillusionment which came afterward constitutes a drama such as only the author, Joseph Hergesheimer, could write.

Lewis S. Stone and Irene Rich are cast as the husband and wife, with Alma Rubens in the role of Cytherea.

Observe 80th Birthday of Mrs. M. J. Cliser

(Contributed)

The old Cliser homestead near Barnard was the scene of a very happy occasion Friday, November 7, in honor of the eightieth birthday of Mrs. Mary J. Cliser. Those present included her five children, seven of her fifteen grandchildren and seven great grandchildren. Besides these there were sisters and brothers with their families, making fifty guests in all.

Greetings and messages were received from relatives in Washington, California, Colorado and Mississippi and others from nearby friends and neighbors. The beautiful birthday cake centered the table flanked by delectable viands brought from the various homes.

During the afternoon members of her family gave interesting talks concerning her early life, how as the oldest child she aided a delicate and widowed mother rear her family of eleven children, which indeed was no small task in those pioneer days. Her children related touching incidents which proved her faithfulness, loyalty and devotion to her husband and his children. Thus, indulging in reminiscences of other days passed all too quickly the birthday of a modest and unassuming, though noble woman, who is most appreciated by those who know her best and whom she served. Her work and labor of love will ever be remembered.

MEMBERS OF BALDWIN'S NEW CABINET.

NEVILLE CHAMBERLAIN, COL. L. S. AMERY & SIR WM JOYNSON-HICKS (Bow) WINSTON CHURCHILL SIR SAMUEL HOARE & VISCOUNT CAVE.

British political experts declare, unless there is some untoward incident to upset it, the new Ministry of Stanley Baldwin has such a majority in Commons that it will last for five years. Already they are seeking untoward incidents in the appointment of Winston Spencer Churchill, the maverick of English politics for twenty years, as Chancellor of the Exchequer. Churchill is an unbending foe of socialism, a free trader, and was not even in the Tory party until this election. Among other Ministers appointed by Mr. Baldwin are: Sir William Joynson-Hicks to be Home Secretary, Neville Chamberlain to be Minister of Health, Colonel L. C. M. S. Amery to be Secretary for the Colonies, Sir Samuel Hoare to be Air Minister, and Viscount Cave to be Lord Chancellor.

2 Large Congregations at Elmo Church Sunday

By Edgar O. Wells, Minister.

A lovely day, and two fine congregations greeted the pastor last Sunday, whose interest did not wane from the beginning of a well attended Sunday School, until the lights were turned off at night. Happy is the man who ministers to such a people, and happy any pastor and people, "whose God is Jehovah."

Beloved Christians of Elmo and vicinity ,the stately steppings of Jesus of the Universe of God, can be heard in our midst, by those whose spiritual ears are open to hear them. The human Christ no longer walks upon the earth, but the ascended High Priest of God, has returned, and abideth with us today, and in answer to our human cry for help, he is saying, "Lo I am with you always even unto the end of the age."

There will be worship and preaching services at the usual hours next Sunday. Morning theme, "The First Star in the Constellation of Grace." Night "Gripping the Eternal Verities."

Finds Kellogg's Bran "Easy way to avoid constipation" after suffering for years

Constipation is a dangerous disease. It can lead to many others. Twenty years' suffering with constipation undermined this man's health. Kellogg's Bran restored it—as it has done for thousands. This is what he says:

"Gentlemen:

After eating Kellogg's Bran twice a day for one month I find it not only an 'Easy Way to Avoid Constipation,' but an easy and most pleasant way to cure it. I have been troubled with constipation . . . for more than twenty years . . . after adopting the milk and bran diet I find my stomach greatly improved, and find it a specific for constipation. . . . I deem it only justice that you should know what your product has done for me, and what it is capable of doing for others."

(The original of this letter is on file at the Kellogg Company, Battle Creek, Mich.)

Kellogg's Bran relieves mild and chronic constipation because it is ALL bran. It brings sure results. It sweeps, cleans and purifies the intestine in nature's own way. Don't experiment. Only ALL bran can be 100 per cent effective.

If eaten regularly, Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is guaranteed to bring permanent relief—or your grocer returns your money. You should eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal.

The flavor is delicious—nut-like—cooked and krumbled. Enjoy it with milk or cream, sprinkled on other cereals, cooked with hot cereals, or in the delightful recipes on every package. Made in Battle Creek. Sold by grocers everywhere.
